

Supreme Court

No. 2018-351-M.P.

Gulliver's Tavern, Inc., d/b/a The Foxy Lady :

v. :

City of Providence, Board of Licenses, et al. :

ORDER

This matter came before the full Court on the petition of Gulliver's Tavern, Inc., d/b/a The Foxy Lady ("Petitioner") for the issuance of a writ of certiorari and for a stay of the decision of the City of Providence Board of Licenses ("Board") dated December 19, 2018. Petitioner seeks to have this Court review the Board's decision to revoke three licenses: an entertainment license, a food license, and a license to operate on Sundays and holidays. After careful consideration of the parties' written submissions, the Court orders the following:

The petition for issuance of a writ of certiorari is granted. This matter shall be placed on the full argument calendar in April. No continuances or extensions will be granted. Petitioner shall file its brief, not to exceed fifty (50) pages, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Respondents shall file their briefs, not to exceed fifty (50) pages, within thirty (30) days of Petitioner's filing its brief. Should Petitioner chose to file a reply brief, it shall be filed within ten (10) days of Respondents' filing their briefs, and such brief shall not exceed twenty-five (25) pages.

The motion for stay is granted in part. The revocation of the licenses at issue before this Court (i.e., entertainment, food, and Sunday/holiday) is stayed; however, Petitioner may only resume use of those licenses subject to the condition that the VIP area, as that term is defined in the Board's decision, remains closed.

The Board shall file a transcript of the Board's December 19, 2018 vote revoking Petitioner's licenses forthwith.

This matter is referred to the Supreme Court Appellate Mediation Program.

Entered as an Order of this Court this 3rd day of January 2019.

By Order,

Clerk
