Re: Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal
Calderon Jimenez, Lillian, [REDACTED]

Dear Ms. Calderon Jimenez:

This letter is in response to the filing of Form I-246, Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), on January 30, 2018.

Prosecutorial discretion is the authority of an agency charged with enforcing a law to decide to what degree to enforce the law against a particular individual. ICE, like any other law enforcement agency, has prosecutorial discretion and may exercise it in the ordinary course of enforcement. These discretionary decisions take on different forms and include stays of deportation or removal. Such decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, after considering the totality of the circumstances, both positive and negative, and must conform with ICE's enforcement priorities, namely national security, public safety, and border security.

After careful consideration of all the factors addressed in your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal, it has been determined that the granting of such discretionary relief is warranted in this case. Therefore, your Application for a Stay of Deportation or Removal is hereby approved for a period of 3 months, until May 12, 2018. At the end of that period, the status of your case will be reviewed for a determination of whether the removal order will be executed at that time.

Sincerely,

Thomas P. Brophy
(A) Field Office Director
